Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Quoting the last paragraph from today's Gospel Reading, it states, "For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

The precept of love of one's neighbor is quoted from the Book of Leviticus where we read, "You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord." (Lv. 18:18)

My brothers and sisters, no one needs to be instructed to hate his enemies. But, we do need to be reminded to love our enemies.

The meaning of the word "neighbor" as found in the Book of Leviticus is a reference to one's group or fellowship: one's village or town, one's religion or nation, one's tribe or race. In many languages the same word is used to designate "stranger," "foreigner," or "enemy." The enemy is specified in the Gospel of Matthew as the persecutor, probably a reflection of the experience of the early Church.

The disciples were taught to show the same indifference to friends and enemies that God shows in his distribution of sunshine and rain; in exhibiting this godlike providence they vindicate their title of sons of God.

Love within one's group or fellowship is merely a natural and universal human trait. But by implementing this kind of love, a forgiving love, the disciples were being perfected as the heavenly Father is perfect.

Let us remember this week to "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect." Let us pray for each other that we may all have the strength to forgive our enemies so we may be perfected by the power of the Holy Spirit in the most Holy Name of Jesus for the glory of God the Father.

Fr. Edgar Rivera

Séptimo Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario

Citando el último párrafo de la Lectura del Evangelio de hoy, se afirma: "Porque si ustedes aman a los que los aman, ¿qué recompensa recibirán? ¿Acaso no hacen lo mismo los publicanos? Y si saludan solamente a sus hermanos y hermanas, ¿qué más están haciendo que los demás? ¿Acaso no hacen eso mismo los paganos? Ustedes, pues, sean perfectos, como vuestro Padre celestial es perfecto."

El precepto del amor al prójimo es una cita del libro de Levítico, donde leemos: "No te vengarás, ni guardarás rencor contra ninguno de tu pueblo, sino que amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo: Yo soy el Señor." (. Lv 18:18)

Mis hermanos y hermanas, nadie necesita ser instruido para odiar a sus enemigos. Sin embargo, necesitamos que se nos recuerde que amemos a nuestros enemigos.

El significado de la palabra "vecino" tal como se encuentra en el libro de Levítico es una referencia a un grupo propio de compañeros: de nuestro pueblo o ciudad, religión o nación, nuestra tribu o raza. En muchos idiomas la misma palabra se utiliza para designar "extraño", "extranjero" o "enemigo". El enemigo se especifica en el Evangelio de Mateo como el perseguidor, probablemente un reflejo de la experiencia de la Iglesia primitiva.

A los discípulos se les enseñó a mostrar la misma indiferencia a amigos y enemigos que Dios muestra en su distribución de la luz del sol y la lluvia; así en la exhibición de esta providencia divina reivindican su título de hijos de Dios.

El amor entre nuestro propio grupo o compañeros es simplemente un rasgo humano natural y universal. Sin embargo, mediante la implementación de un tipo de amor que perdona, los discípulos estaban siendo perfeccionados como el Padre celestial es perfecto.

Recordemos esta semana "Sed perfectos como vuestro Padre celestial es perfecto." Vamos a orar unos por otros para que todos podamos tener la fuerza para perdonar a nuestros enemigos y así podamos ser perfeccionados por el poder del Espíritu Santo en el Santísimo Nombre de Jesús para la gloria de Dios Padre.

FAMILY LIFE APOSTOLATE

Invites all, to a Family Life Series
The FLS has two basic purposes: Evangelism and Spiritual renewal.

- To evangelize is to take the basic message of Christianity and to proclaim it anew so that those who hear it can make a renewed commitment to the Lord in a way which will allow them to receive a fuller experience of the work of the Holy Spirit in their lives.
- Spiritual renewal works in three ways:
 1. For the individual, it brings a person into a stronger relationship with God by discovering and living more fully the power and gifts he or she received through the Holy Spirit.
 2. For the family, it brings married couples and individual members of the family into a renewed commitment to Christian family life and it starts to build up a community of committed Christian families.
 3. For the Church, it brings people who already have a clear identification with a particular parish to a fuller experience of life in the Spirit. It also strengthens and revitalizes community life in the parish itself.

What is the content of the FLS?

The FLS runs for a total of 9 consecutive sessions (usually held once a week), divided into an Orientation Session and then 2 modules of 4 sessions each. The topics of the 8 sessions are:

Module 1: The Basic Truth about Christianity	Schedules:
1. God's Love	February 17
2. Who is Jesus Christ	February 24
3. What it means to be a Christian	March 3
4. Repentance and Faith	March 10
Module 2: The Authentic Christian Life
5. The Christian Family	March 17
6. What are the Spiritual Gifts?	March 24
7. Receiving the Power of the Holy Spirit	March 31
8. Transformation in Christ and Dedication	April 7

These sessions are held in the Day Care Room, in the Parish Center, at 7:30 in the evening.
