National Vocation Awareness Week 2017

St. Juan Diego became a Catholic convert when the seeds of Christianity were being planted for the first time in Mexico. He saw the difference between a church people who really serve God and neighbor, and those who did not, and he also experienced those who were at times confused. It was a time when many people were hurting, and many people were hungry. They weren't sure where to turn, but God was aware of this, and God had a plan. God sent our Mother, Our Lady of Guadalupe, to Juan Diego and his people. She chose Juan, not because he was important, but because he was humble. He had a heart that was open to love and service. God had given Juan Diego these gifts in advance. He knew what Our Lady would one day ask of her little Juan, and so he prepared Juan in the best way possible to accept the mission that Mary wanted Juan Diego to fulfill.

Juan Diego was asked to be the messenger of Our Lady of Guadalupe. He had many reasons to not do it: he was a commoner even among the Indians, he was not believed, he was mocked, and he had a sick uncle who was dying. Yet, he decided to respond to the call and to trust. His heart that God had prepared would not be calm and fulfilled until he followed God's plan, which Mary perfectly offered to Juan Diego. It was difficult. He even tried to take a different route one day so he would not see Mary on the way. But his heart could not escape its destiny. So he humbly said "yes." Since he trusted in the midst of trials, it led to one of the greatest conversions of people in the history of Christianity.

God chooses each of us to work with him in a unique way to share the Gospel and work for the coming of his kingdom. Sometimes we too are afraid to do what God is asking of us. But fear never comes from God. God always invites us with love. God's plan is attractive. God has created each of our hearts perfectly to follow the plan he has also laid out for our lives. Do not be afraid of your call. God can use it in incredible ways. And this is the truest way to find happiness and peace for our lives.

We think that serving God will mean giving up something of ourselves, losing something. But the opposite is actually true. It is when we serve the Church, the family of God, the way in which God is asking us to do so, that we find who we truly are because then we have become the person God has created us to be. Live the greatest adventure of your life; say yes to God!

Semana Nacional de Concientización Vocacional 2017

San Juan Diego se convirtió al catolicismo cuando las semillas del cristianismo estaban siendo plantadas por primera vez en México. Pudo distinguir la diferencia entre las personas de Iglesia que de verdad sirven a Dios y al prójimo y los que no lo hacen y también tuvo la experiencia de quienes a veces andaban confundidos. Era un tiempo en que muchas personas estaban sufriendo y muchas pasaban hambre. No estaban seguros de a quién acudir, pero Dios sabía esto y tenía un plan. Dios envió a nuestra Madre, Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, a Juan Diego y a su pueblo. Escogió a Juan, no porque fuera importante, sino porque era humilde. Juan tenía un corazón abierto al amor y al servicio. Dios le había dado a Juan Diego estos dones por adelantado. Sabía lo que algún día Nuestra Señora le pediría a su pequeño Juan, y lo preparó de la mejor manera posible para aceptar la misión que María quería que Juan Diego cumpliera.

A Juan Diego se le pidió ser mensajero de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Él tenía muchas razones para no hacerlo: era un hombre del pueblo e, incluso entre los indígenas, no tenía credibilidad, se burlaban de él, y además tenía un tío enfermo a punto de morir. Y sin embargo, decidió responder a la llamada y confiar. Su corazón, que Dios había preparado, no estaría tranquilo y realizado a no ser que siguiera el plan de Dios, que María le había ofrecido perfectamente. Era muy difícil: él incluso trató un día de ir por un camino distinto para no encontrarse con María. Pero su corazón no podía escaparse de su destino. Así que humildemente dijo "sí". Su confianza en medio de las dificultades condujo a una de las mayores conversiones de un pueblo en la historia del cristianismo.

Dios nos escoge a cada uno de nosotros de manera singular para compartir el Evangelio y trabajar para la venida de su Reino. A veces nosotros también tenemos miedo de hacer lo que Dios nos está pidiendo. Pero el temor nunca viene de Dios. Dios siempre nos invita con amor. El plan de Dios es atractivo. Dios ha creado cada uno de nuestros corazones para seguir perfectamente el plan que ha diseñado para cada una de nuestras vidas. No tengan miedo de su llamado. Dios lo puede usar de maneras increíbles. Y es la manera más verdadera de encontrar la felicidad y la paz en nuestras vidas.

Pensamos que servir a Dios significará renunciar a algo de nosotros mismos, perder algo. Pero, de hecho, la verdad es que es al contrario. Es cuando servimos a la Iglesia, la familia de Dios, en el modo en que Dios nos pide que lo hagamos, cuando encontramos quiénes somos de verdad, porque entonces nos habremos convertido en la persona para la que Dios nos creó. Vive la mayor aventura de tu vida; ¡Di sí a Dios!

Cancer Prevention

Some people live with the fear of Cancer
 But I say Prevention is the only answer,
 Indeed many cures exist from A to Z
 But why wait for cancer to make your cells go crazy,
 You are in charge of your cell rejuvenation
 You could change your cells with good nutrition,
 All your cells renew themselves every nine months or so
 So you could change your body from head to toe,
 Work from within to create your own physiology
 Strengthen your immune system; make your own immunotherapy,
 A healthy immune system will destroy cancer cells if they enter your body
 Eat plant-based foods, drink filtered water, exercise daily
Beware of hot food in plastic containers, because BPA is the enemy,
 Beware of preservatives, fresh food is not cheap, but absolutely necessary
 5 steps to create a habit of health, go to morethanfriendscares.org website,
 Try the free 7-day active living workout to maintain a healthy lifestyle
 But you know that everything in this world is temporary
 So don't forget your spirituality, check with God regularly.
