Faithful in the Service of the Lord

From today's Gospel Reading, we further see how Jesus served the Heavenly Father in answering His Divine Commission to announce that the Kingdom of God on earth was coming. As proof of His Divinity, Jesus performed numerous miracles. Earlier, we heard how he cured the mother-in-law of Simon who had fever. Once cured, Simon's mother-in-law got up and served Jesus and those who were present. This example affirms that those who have been saved by Christ through a spiritual rebirth and healing, are expected to serve the Lord God.

Now, Jesus' ministry at Capernaum was not limited to a few friends. Jesus made Himself available to all those in need who accepted Him as the Son of God. Earlier, we heard that at sundown, the city was gathered around the door where Jesus was present. The people brought the sick and those who were possessed by demons to Jesus. And Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons. At the same time, He would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

Later, while it was still dark, Jesus got up and went out to a deserted place where He prayed. Consequently, Simon and his companions went out looking for Him.

Here, we see the worldly mind at work again. Simon said, "Everyone is searching for you." This implies that Jesus should remain at Capernaum and gain fame from the popularity of His miracles. But Jesus, being spiritually minded, refuse to limit His ministry to one place or to encourage the belief of a coming worldly Kingdom of God. Responding to Simon, He said, "Let us go to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And Jesus travelled throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message of the spiritual Kingdom of God in the synagogues and cast out demons.

Fieles al Servicio del Señor

A partir de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, vemos además cómo sirvió Jesús al Padre celestial al responder a su Divina Comisión para anunciar que el Reino de Dios en la tierra. Como prueba de su divinidad, Jesús realizó numerosos milagros. Anteriormente, escuchamos cómo curó a la suegra de Simón que tenía fiebre. Una vez curada, la suegra de Simón se levantó y sirvió a Jesús y a los que estaban presentes. Este ejemplo afirma que aquellos que han sido salvados por Cristo a través de un renacimiento espiritual y la curación, se espera que sirvan al Señor Dios.

Ahora, el ministerio de Jesús en Cafarnaúm no se limitaba a unos pocos amigos. Jesús se puso a disposición de todos los necesitados que lo aceptaron como el Hijo de Dios. Anteriormente, escuchamos que, al atardecer, la ciudad estaba reunida alrededor de la puerta donde Jesús estaba presente. La gente trajo a los enfermos a los que estaban poseídos con demonios. Y Jesús curó a muchos enfermos de diversas enfermedades y expulsó a muchos demonios. Al mismo tiempo, Él no permitió que los demonios hablaran, porque ellos sabían quién era.

Más tarde, cuando todavía estaba oscuro, Jesús se levantó y salió a un lugar desierto donde oraba. En consecuencia, Simón y sus compañeros salieron a buscarlo.

Aquí, vemos que la mente mundana vuelve a funcionar. Simón dijo: "Todo el mundo te está buscando". Esto implica que Jesús debe permanecer en Cafarnaúm y obtener fama de la popularidad de Sus milagros. Pero Jesús, con una mentalidad espiritual, se rehúsa a limitar su ministerio a un lugar o a alentar la creencia de un Reino venidero de Dios. Respondiendo a Simón, dijo: "Vayamos a las ciudades vecinas, para poder proclamar el mensaje allí también, porque eso es lo que vine a hacer". Y Jesús viajó por toda Galilea, proclamando el mensaje del Reino espiritual de Dios en las sinagogas y echando fuera demonios.

Lenten Guides for Fasting & Abstinence

The Church teaches that Catholics in good health are to observe the following practices during Lent unless for some serious reason they are unable to do so. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Fasting as explained by the U.S. bishops means partaking of only one full meal and two smaller meals that do not equal the main meal. Abstinence forbids the use of meat, but not of eggs, milk products or condiments made of animal fat. The Easter fast must be kept sacred and should be celebrated everywhere on Good Friday, and where possible should be prolonged throughout Holy Saturday so that the faithful may attain the joys of Easter Sunday.

A Prayer for Lent

Lord, Holy Father, show us what kind of man it is who is hanging for our sakes on the cross,
whose suffering causes
the rocks themselves to crack and crumble
with compassion, whose death brings
the dead back to life.

Let my heart crack and crumble
At the sight of him.

Let my soul break apart
With compassion for his suffering.

Let it be shattered with grief
at my sins for which he dies.

And finally let it be softened with devoted love for him. Amen.

-St. Bonaventure

Guías Cuaresmales para el Ayuno y Abstinencia

La Iglesia enseña que los Católicos con buena salud deben observar las siguientes prácticas durante la Cuaresma a menos que por alguna razón seria no puedan hacerlo. Los Católicos entre las edades de 18 y 59 años están obligados a ayunar el Miércoles de Ceniza y el Viernes Santo. Además, todos los Católicos de 14 años en adelante deben abstenerse de comer carne el Miércoles de Ceniza, el Viernes Santo y todos los viernes de Cuaresma.

El ayuno, tal como lo explican los obispos de EE.UU.; significa compartir solo una comida completa y dos comidas más pequeñas que no son iguales a la comida principal. La abstinencia prohíbe el uso de carne, pero no de huevos, productos lácteos o condimentos hechos de grasa animal. El ayuno de Pascua debe mantenerse sagrado y debe celebrarse en todas partes el Viernes Santo, y cuando sea posible debe prolongarse durante todo el Sábado Santo para que los fieles puedan disfrutar de las alegrías del Domingo de Pascua.
