Giving to God what rightfully belongs to Him

In the Gospel of Matthew 22:15-21 our attention is drawn towards the few who did not shine very much, if at all, in the eyes of God. Our attention is drawn to the Pharisees who were siding with the Herodians to trap Jesus with a question. Jesus was asked. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor or not? Jesus asked for a coin and said. Whose head is this and whose title? They answered, the emperor's. So, Jesus told them to give therefore to the emperor the things that belong to the emperor and to God the things that are God's.

To fully understand this tricky question, it is necessary to know and understand what related to the minting of Roman coins. The right to mint a coin proved sovereignty. The Roman Government minted their own coins and jealously guarded this sovereignty, making it an act of rebellion to mint any coins other than under the Roman authority. As such, since the coins were minted by the Roman Empire, they belonged to its Government. To condemn the paying of taxes would have meant to disagree with the occupancy of the Romans. To agree to pay taxes would have meant to support their occupancy of the land.

We are called to become the image of God. We are called to actively maintain our gifts by living our faith in Christ. We are called to give to God what belongs to God. Let us appreciate what God has given us. By the power of the Holy Spirit, let us preserve our gifts and blessings with all our soul, our mind, our spirit, our heart and our strength. In the Most Holy Name of Jesus, let us keep these gifts stainless so that one day, when we will appear before the Lord God, we will proudly give Him back what He gave us.

Dar a Dios lo que legítimamente le pertenece a Él

En el Evangelio de Mateo 22: 15-21 nuestra atención es atraído hacia los pocos que no brilla mucho, en todo caso, a los ojos de Dios. Nuestra atención está dirigida a los fariseos que se estaban uniendo con los herodianos para atrapar a Jesús con una pregunta. Le preguntaron a Jesús. ¿Es lícito pagar los impuestos al César o no? Jesús pidió una moneda y dijo. ¿De quién es la imagen y la inscripción? Ellos respondieron, del César. Por lo tanto, Jesús les dijo den al César lo que pertenecen al César y a Dios lo que es de Dios.

Para comprender completamente esta pregunta difícil, es necesario conocer y comprender lo relacionado con la acuñación de monedas romanas. El derecho a acuñar una moneda demostró soberanía. El gobierno romano acuñó sus propias monedas y celosamente esta soberanía, por lo que es un acto de rebelión acuñar monedas que no sean bajo la autoridad romana. Como tal, dado que las monedas fueron acuñadas por el Imperio Romano, pertenecieron a su Gobierno. Condenar el pago de impuestos habría significado no estar de acuerdo con la ocupación de los romanos. Acordar pagar impuestos habría significado apoyar su ocupación del terreno.

Estamos llamados a convertirnos en imagen de Dios. Estamos llamados a mantener activamente nuestros dones viviendo nuestra fe en Cristo. Estamos llamados a dar a Dios lo que es de Dios. Apreciemos lo que Dios nos ha dado. Por el poder del Espíritu Santo, preservemos nuestros dones y bendiciones con toda nuestra alma, nuestra mente, nuestro espíritu, nuestro corazón y nuestras fuerzas. En el Santísimo Nombre de Jesús, mantengamos estos dones inalterables para que un día, cuando nos presentemos ante el Señor Dios, le devolvamos con orgullo lo que Él nos dio.

ST. ANTHONY'S "ALPHA"

WHAT IS ALPHA?

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the basics of the Christian faith. Typically run over eleven weeks, each session looks at a different question that people can have about faith and is designed to create conversation. It's just an open, informal and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.
